

Skin Forever

By Darnell Treasure Pierre

My skin helps me cover up my body.
And helps me not get hurt.
It keeps my bones safe

My skin is different than yours.
And it always will be.
And it makes me who I am.

But my skin is not all about me.

Just looking at my skin
doesn't tell you everything about me.

If you want to know about me,
you have to know who I am.
And what I do.

My skin is brown like chocolate.

My feelings are like the sun.
Hot and burns like happiness.

My mind tells me what I'm good at.
Reading is learning more.
Science is inventing.

If you come close enough,
you'll really know who I am.

My dream is to be president
so I can get respect.

So people will know
I'm somebody important.

You have to come inside me
to know who I am.
