

The Move

Moving beds
moving pillows
moving all sorts of furniture
all the way down
to Maine
Tired as can be
we finally get there.
I go straight to my room
to unpack.
I take out my stuffies
and line them up
on my freshly made bed.
I feel like I'm home.
It smells like summer.
I plop on my bed
and fall fast asleep.
