

Music

Notes on paper are turned into an expression of passion and power as our voice whispers softly in your ear.

Or we could be surprising,
with sudden stops and starts,
as if we were traffic with stoplights one too many.

We can do almost anything
with thousands of beautiful instruments,
each with a unique, different personality,
but each and every one of us is unmistakable.

We are music.

We make the world complete
