

Windmills of the Netherlands

Wind gusting

Transforming into power

The beauty and elegance of perfect symmetry

Connecting air, water, energy and life

Climbing steep, jagged, wooden stairs

Shaking, trembling

Clenching onto the thick, abrasive safety rope

Sweaty palms slipping

One more step to be on top of the world

Now fifty feet closer to the sun

Reaching up to touch the clouds

At the junction of wind and energy

On top of the world

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Sakshi K. Singh". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Sakshi" and the last name "Singh" clearly distinguishable.
