

I Am Trying to Write a Poem About Purple

I am trying to write a poem about purple
But I don't know what to write
Maybe I'll write about purple clouds
Drifting on a purple night
Or how about some purple birds
Soaring in a purple sky?
Or how about a purple balloon
That floats up very high?
Wait! I am writing a poem about purple!
Do you think it's good?
I wrote a poem about purple
And I didn't know I could.
